

TERMS OF ADVERTISING.

ONE DOLLAR per square of ten lines, first insertion, and TWENTY-FIVE CENTS per square for each subsequent insertion.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Over $30,000 in pools have been sold thus far in the races.

One hundred passengers from San Francisco arrived yesterday morning at the Ventura.

There are telegrams at the Telephone office for Frank Hinkle, Jno. Hunkeler, Mart Maloney and S. C. Flanders.

The Orizaba, sailing from San Francisco and Santa Barbara only, will leave Wednesday, November 4th.

The Ventura will sail for San Francisco to-morrow. Passengers will leave on the 3:45 p. m. train.

There was not a quorum present at the Council yesterday, and the time of meeting was postponed until 2 p. m. to-day.

The prisoners under indictment were brought into Court yesterday morning to plead and their cases were set for trial.

Mrs. Albert Packard, of Santa Barbara, mother of Mr. Packard local reporter for La Cronica, is in the city for a short visit.

Miss Florence Kent receives a complimentary benefit at the Theatre to-night. Let her receive a crowded house. The bill for the night is tip-top.

A certificate of purchase was issued from the United States Land Office yesterday for the Golden Chariot quarter mine, Banner District, San Diego county.

A general meeting of the Chamber of Commerce has been called for next Monday evening at the District Court room to elect a new board of eleven Directors. A full attendance of members is earnestly desired.

Remember the lecture at Good Templars Hall next Monday evening, on the Struggle for Irish Independence, to be given by Gen. F. F. Millen and Capt. John McCaffery.

Pools will be sold in this city to-night on the great Occident-Fullerton race, to come off to-morrow afternoon at San Francisco. The result will be promptly telegraphed here.

All the public schools will be closed to-day to enable the "school-marks" and their prodigies to go out to the Fair ground and have their share of the fun announced for to-day.

Found, last night on Main street, a small mare, white mane and face, with a new bridle and saddle, branded with a ring, connected with letter J. Owner will please call at Marshall's office.

The exports from the Los Nietos depot for the four days ending October 28th were: 650 sacks Russian barley, 39 sacks rye, 349 sacks barley and 27 sacks castor beans.

Colonel Peter Donohue and lady, of San Francisco, are spending a few days in our city. The Colonel has visited Los Angeles often and notes her progress and improvement with pleasure.

One of our ministers, out in his buggy, accidentally fell into the circus procession yesterday morning and marched down Spring street with the animals, causing much merriment to his many friends.

The Postoffice and Wells, Fargo & Co.'s office will be closed to-day from 12 to 3 o'clock. This will be done to give the hard working employees of the establishments a chance to recreate and attend the Fair.

Simpson, the sneak thief who purloined a lot of buggy robes and blankets on the Fair grounds last Monday, was arraigned before Judge Gray yesterday. He has enough money left from the proceeds of his thieving to secure counsel, and his case will be defended. The trial is set for Saturday.

The Real Estate Associates have received their certificate of incorporation from the Secretary of State, and the first annual meeting of shareholders will be held at 10 a. m. to-morrow at the U. S. Land Office. The Board of eleven Trustees, to serve one year, will be elected and the Constitution and By-Laws finally adopted.

Prof. Lawlor, Rev. Dr. White, Rev. Mr. Packard, Mrs. Ben. C. Truman, Mrs. Gillette and Mrs. Hubbard, the Committee appointed to award the premiums on composition, penmanship and drawing of pupils of the Public schools of the district, are requested to meet at Judge O'Melveny's office, at the Court house at 2 o'clock p. m. to-day.

Mr. M. S. Thresher, Treasurer of San Joaquin county visited our city and left yesterday for his home in Stockton. Mr. Thresher is Great Sachem of the Red Men for this State, and comes down here to install the officers of Shoshone Tribe just organized in this city. Mr. Thresher is so well pleased with Los Angeles that he proposes to pay us another and more extended visit next Spring.

An Accidental Death.

Last evening, about 5 o'clock, Hugh Forster, a brother of Don Juan Forster, fell dead while riding along Main street, from the rupture of one of the blood vessels of the heart. The deceased, a single man, about forty-five years old, superintended his brother's sheep ranch near Santa Margarita. A few days ago he came to Los Angeles from the Panamint district, where he had been prospecting. Yesterday he went out to the fair grounds to witness the races, and was returning with a friend when he met his death. When near the Morris place he said to his companion, "I am gone," and fell from his horse dead. The coroner summoned a jury and commenced the inquest last night, but no verdict will be rendered until this morning. The body will be buried this morning at the Protestant burial ground. A stout, hearty man, the death of the deceased came to his relatives and friends with terrible force.

THE ANNUAL FAIR.

More About the Risk-First-Class Trotting and Running Races at the Fair Grounds—Continued from page 1.

Los Angeles is still thronged with visitors and all branches of business are running under high pressure. Our guests express themselves highly pleased with the trials of speed at the race track and the display at the Rink, and all admit that our city has made wonderful progress since their visit at the last annual fair.

AT THE RINK. The pavilion is kept open each day and evening for the reception of visitors and many avail themselves of the opportunity to look through the display, although at no time except on the opening night has there been a very large attendance. Since our first report of the entries for exhibition a number of articles have been added, a list of which we append.

M. W. Childs & Co. have a fine display of stoves, tinware, wire-work, etc.

Judge Allen, of Los Nietos, shows some large watermelons. A fine oil painting of Othello and Desdemona, from Kaiser's gallery, is on exhibition; the name of exhibitor not given.

M. W. Perry, of the bindery, shows a creditable specimen of work done in his establishment, it being a large, full-bound ledger, covered.

The Woolen Mill Company have some woolen blankets and cloths on exhibition manufactured in their establishment. They are a good showing for home manufacture.

E. H. Workman displays a banana tree grown on his place. It is nearly twelve feet in height, with broad, spreading leaves and the circumference of the top must be as much as thirty feet. The tree bears some ripening fruit.

Mrs. Anna Schulze exhibits in addition to her former display an elegant table-linen, a pair of shoes and a sewing-chair with upholstery in worsted and bead work. The chair is to be raffled.

Captain Borrowo exhibits a portable Babcock extinguisher, a safe-lock manufactured by Dietrich & Knicker, Down's polishing and cleaning oil and firemen's life preservers. The articles all stand on their own merits and are well known to the public, so that a full description is unnecessary.

Dewey Kimball & Co. have on display a fine morocco horse-collar, a bridle and fine-leather harness, besides an elegant buggy robe and Axminster rug.

Dunsmore Bros. have two large show-cases filled with fancy articles, Yankee notions, etc., from their Dollar Store, making the finest display of the kind in the pavilion.

Our report of Wednesday morning stating that Mr. and Mrs. Baker have the agencies for several sewing machines named, was in error. The agency of the Wheeler & Wilson is held by Mr. E. O. Oak, the Westcoast & Gibbs by Miss M. L. Hatt, Howe & Singer by Hellman and Campbell, and the Florence by Mrs. V. Ponet. Mr. and Mrs. Baker sell all of these machines second-hand and do a general repairing business, carrying on exclusively a sewing machine exchange.

A committee to receive and pass upon writing, drawing and composition, as named in the list of premiums, was yesterday appointed as follows: Mesdames Truman, Gillette and Hubbard, Judge O'Melveny, Professor Lawlor, Rev. Dr. White and Rev. T. F. Backus. Judge O'Melveny acted as Chairman. The committee met at the Rink at 7 o'clock last evening to receive the specimens of the various contestants and will return their decisions this evening. There were in the first and second premiums awarded in each of these branches, that of composition comprehending extra premiums for the best original poems. The contestants for these premiums are to be members of the public schools.

AT THE RACE TRACK.

The attendance at the race track was larger than on any preceding day of the Fair. The grand stand teemed with humanity and hundreds surrounded the course in front of the Judges' Stand. The attendance of young ladies was especially gratifying to the stern sex. As two fast races were on the programme with crack horses to compete, the excitement was intense and heavy betting freely indulged in. With a most genial day, a trace of rain in the afternoon and fast horses competing for liberal purses, as a matter of course there was a good time all around.

A DEFERRED DECISION.

The judges mounted their stand at 1 o'clock and before proceeding to business announced the following decision in the running race, half mile and repeat, free for all in the district that came off late on Wednesday afternoon: first premium of $125 to Irene Harding; second premium of $50 to Little Agnes; and third premium of $25 to Monte Belle. Whereupon those who gambled on Irene were exceedingly happy.

THE FIRST RACE.

The afternoon's sport commenced with a most exciting trotting race, free for all, mile heats, best three in five, to harness. Purse, $500; $300 to first, $125 to second and $75 to third. At the pool selling on the preceding night the bets ranged as follows: Vaughan, $25; the Moor, $20; Echo, $12. The entries were as follows:

W. J. Wells enters br. g. Vaughan. L. H. Titus enters b. h. Echo. L. J. Rose enters b. s. the Moor.

FIRST HEAT.

The Moor won the pole, Vaughan second and Echo on the outside. There were four or five false starts, and the snafu was entertained by many that the drivers of Vaughan and the Moor were trying to wear Echo out. When the "go" was given Echo was off his feet and Vaughan about a length behind the other two. At the first turn Vaughan crawled up and took the lead, Echo breaking badly. Past the first quarter-pole Vaughan flew half a length to the front, Echo in the rear. At the half-mile, Echo came out very badly, making another fearful break. At the third quarter Vaughan was slightly in advance and he passed under the wire at least three lengths ahead of the Moor, who made an unfortunate break on the home stretch. Echo came in several lengths behind the black. Time, 2:38.

SECOND HEAT.

Excitement ran high and betting was lively. At the pool-selling the Moor, being in first-class condition, was the general favorite, at odds of five to one on the field. Vaughan brought about half as much as the black with Echo far in the back ground. There were two false starts and McGregor, driver of the Moor, was fined $10 for not obeying the instruction of the judges "to score with Vaughan," who was the hindmost horse in scoring. Mr. Titus drove his horse, Echo, on and after this heat. A fair start was secured, Vaughan at the pole and Echo on the outside. Vaughan took the lead at the turn and kept it to the home stretch, Echo falling behind. From the first quarter to the third quarter pole, Vaughan and the Moor had a magnificent contest, the black slightly shortening the gap. On the home stretch all three horses broke, but were promptly brought back to a trotting gait. At the distance-pole the Moor put on full steam and closed in on Vaughan, the two crossing the score, neck and neck, in 2:38. Echo trotted splendidly after passing the half-mile pole and would have won the heat had he kept his feet on the home stretch—as it was he was close up to the other horses at the scratch. The judges awarded a dead heat for Vaughan and the Moor.

THIRD HEAT.

The announcement of a "dead heat" added fuel to the flames and a general rush was made for the pool stand. The Moor remained the favorite at the following rates: Moor, $50; Vaughan, $30; Echo, $7 50.

THE HORSES WENT OFF ON THE SECOND

score with a fair start, the positions being the same as in the last heat, the Moor a neck in advance. At the turn Vaughan took the lead, the Moor close on him and Echo trailing behind. At the quarter pole Vaughan was up by a length, Echo a neck and a half behind. At the half-mile the same positions were maintained with the exception that Echo had crawled up somewhat. At the third quarter Vaughan still led, but all four horses were getting a bunch, and then came a magnificent centurion around the turn and in on the home-stretch. The black was about even with Vaughan, when he untidily made a break, leaving the lead to the Moor. Vaughan passed under the wire two lengths ahead, Echo coming up square with the Moor's nose. Time, 2:37.

The judges gave the heat to Vaughan and declared Echo and the Moor were. This was the best heat during the entire races. Echo did not even make a skip; Vaughan made a bobble at the third quarter, but recovered so quickly that it was scarcely perceptible to the naked eye; the Moor made but one break, but it cost him the heat.

FOURTH HEAT.

Vaughan had now won two heats and one more heat would give him the race. The many backers of the Moor were worried but maintained their faith in the black, but Vaughan went forward in popular favor. The pools stood: Vaughan $35, the Moor $12 and Echo $8.

Vaughan had the pole, Echo on the outside. There were half a dozen false starts, the black each time being too far in the lead. "Hold in the Moor," cries out the judge, "or you'll be first again." "I can't hold in the Moor," retorts McGregor, "fine the other drivers for holding their horses back." Then the "go" was given but the start was a wretched one. The Moor was half a length ahead of Vaughan and Echo at least a length behind the latter. At the quarter pole the Moor was in the lead by half a length and Echo over a length ahead of Vaughan. The latter made a break at the outside. There were half a dozen false starts, the black each time being too far in the lead. "Hold in the Moor," cries out the judge, "or you'll be first again." "I can't hold in the Moor," retorts McGregor, "fine the other drivers for holding their horses back." Then the "go" was given but the start was a wretched one. The Moor was half a length ahead of Vaughan and Echo at least a length behind the latter. At the quarter pole the Moor was in the lead by half a length and Echo over a length ahead of Vaughan. The latter made a break at the outside. There were half a dozen false starts, the black each time being too far in the lead. "Hold in the Moor," cries out the judge, "or you'll be first again." "I can't hold in the Moor," retorts McGregor, "fine the other drivers for holding their horses back." Then the "go" was given but the start was a wretched one. The Moor was half a length ahead of Vaughan and Echo at least a length behind the latter. At the quarter pole the Moor was in the lead by half a length and Echo over a length ahead of Vaughan. The latter made a break at the outside. There were half a dozen false starts, the black each time being too far in the lead. "Hold in the Moor," cries out the judge, "or you'll be first again." "I can't hold in the Moor," retorts McGregor, "fine the other drivers for holding their horses back." Then the "go" was given but the start was a wretched one. The Moor was half a length ahead of Vaughan and Echo at least a length behind the latter. At the quarter pole the Moor was in the lead by half a length and Echo over a length ahead of Vaughan. The latter made a break at the outside. There were half a dozen false starts, the black each time being too far in the lead. "Hold in the Moor," cries out the judge, "or you'll be first again." "I can't hold in the Moor," retorts McGregor, "fine the other drivers for holding their horses back." Then the "go" was given but the start was a wretched one. The Moor was half a length ahead of Vaughan and Echo at least a length behind the latter. At the quarter pole the Moor was in the lead by half a length and Echo over a length ahead of Vaughan. The latter made a break at the outside. There were half a dozen false starts, the black each time being too far in the lead. "Hold in the Moor," cries out the judge, "or you'll be first again." "I can't hold in the Moor," retorts McGregor, "fine the other drivers for holding their horses back." Then the "go" was given but the start was a wretched one. The Moor was half a length ahead of Vaughan and Echo at least a length behind the latter. At the quarter pole the Moor was in the lead by half a length and Echo over a length ahead of Vaughan. The latter made a break at the outside. There were half a dozen false starts, the black each time being too far in the lead. "Hold in the Moor," cries out the judge, "or you'll be first again." "I can't hold in the Moor," retorts McGregor, "fine the other drivers for holding their horses back." Then the "go" was given but the start was a wretched one. The Moor was half a length ahead of Vaughan and Echo at least a length behind the latter. At the quarter pole the Moor was in the lead by half a length and Echo over a length ahead of Vaughan. The latter made a break at the outside. There were half a dozen false starts, the black each time being too far in the lead. "Hold in the Moor," cries out the judge, "or you'll be first again." "I can't hold in the Moor," retorts McGregor, "fine the other drivers for holding their horses back." Then the "go" was given but the start was a wretched one. The Moor was half a length ahead of Vaughan and Echo at least a length behind the latter. At the quarter pole the Moor was in the lead by half a length and Echo over a length ahead of Vaughan. The latter made a break at the outside. There were half a dozen false starts, the black each time being too far in the lead. "Hold in the Moor," cries out the judge, "or you'll be first again." "I can't hold in the Moor," retorts McGregor, "fine the other drivers for holding their horses back." Then the "go" was given but the start was a wretched one. The Moor was half a length ahead of Vaughan and Echo at least a length behind the latter. At the quarter pole the Moor was in the lead by half a length and Echo over a length ahead of Vaughan. The latter made a break at the outside. There were half a dozen false starts, the black each time being too far in the lead. "Hold in the Moor," cries out the judge, "or you'll be first again." "I can't hold in the Moor," retorts McGregor, "fine the other drivers for holding their horses back." Then the "go" was given but the start was a wretched one. The Moor was half a length ahead of Vaughan and Echo at least a length behind the latter. At the quarter pole the Moor was in the lead by half a length and Echo over a length ahead of Vaughan. The latter made a break at the outside. There were half a dozen false starts, the black each time being too far in the lead. "Hold in the Moor," cries out the judge, "or you'll be first again." "I can't hold in the Moor," retorts McGregor, "fine the other drivers for holding their horses back." Then the "go" was given but the start was a wretched one. The Moor was half a length ahead of Vaughan and Echo at least a length behind the latter. At the quarter pole the Moor was in the lead by half a length and Echo over a length ahead of Vaughan. The latter made a break at the outside. There were half a dozen false starts, the black each time being too far in the lead. "Hold in the Moor," cries out the judge, "or you'll be first again." "I can't hold in the Moor," retorts McGregor, "fine the other drivers for holding their horses back." Then the "go" was given but the start was a wretched one. The Moor was half a length ahead of Vaughan and Echo at least a length behind the latter. At the quarter pole the Moor was in the lead by half a length and Echo over a length ahead of Vaughan. The latter made a break at the outside. There were half a dozen false starts, the black each time being too far in the lead. "Hold in the Moor," cries out the judge, "or you'll be first again." "I can't hold in the Moor," retorts McGregor, "fine the other drivers for holding their horses back." Then the "go" was given but the start was a wretched one. The Moor was half a length ahead of Vaughan and Echo at least a length behind the latter. At the quarter pole the Moor was in the lead by half a length and Echo over a length ahead of Vaughan. The latter made a break at the outside. There were half a dozen false starts, the black each time being too far in the lead. "Hold in the Moor," cries out the judge, "or you'll be first again." "I can't hold in the Moor," retorts McGregor, "fine the other drivers for holding their horses back." Then the "go" was given but the start was a wretched one. The Moor was half a length ahead of Vaughan and Echo at least a length behind the latter. At the quarter pole the Moor was in the lead by half a length and Echo over a length ahead of Vaughan. The latter made a break at the outside. There were half a dozen false starts, the black each time being too far in the lead. "Hold in the Moor," cries out the judge, "or you'll be first again." "I can't hold in the Moor," retorts McGregor, "fine the other drivers for holding their horses back." Then the "go" was given but the start was a wretched one. The Moor was half a length ahead of Vaughan and Echo at least a length behind the latter. At the quarter pole the Moor was in the lead by half a length and Echo over a length ahead of Vaughan. The latter made a break at the outside. There were half a dozen false starts, the black each time being too far in the lead. "Hold in the Moor," cries out the judge, "or you'll be first again." "I can't hold in the Moor," retorts McGregor, "fine the other drivers for holding their horses back." Then the "go" was given but the start was a wretched one. The Moor was half a length ahead of Vaughan and Echo at least a length behind the latter. At the quarter pole the Moor was in the lead by half a length and Echo over a length ahead of Vaughan. The latter made a break at the outside. There were half a dozen false starts, the black each time being too far in the lead. "Hold in the Moor," cries out the judge, "or you'll be first again." "I can't hold in the Moor," retorts McGregor, "fine the other drivers for holding their horses back." Then the "go" was given but the start was a wretched one. The Moor was half a length ahead of Vaughan and Echo at least a length behind the latter. At the quarter pole the Moor was in the lead by half a length and Echo over a length ahead of Vaughan. The latter made a break at the outside. There were half a dozen false starts, the black each time being too far in the lead. "Hold in the Moor," cries out the judge, "or you'll be first again." "I can't hold in the Moor," retorts McGregor, "fine the other drivers for holding their horses back." Then the "go" was given but the start was a wretched one. The Moor was half a length ahead of Vaughan and Echo at least a length behind the latter. At the quarter pole the Moor was in the lead by half a length and Echo over a length ahead of Vaughan. The latter made a break at the outside. There were half a dozen false starts, the black each time being too far in the lead. "Hold in the Moor," cries out the judge, "or you'll be first again." "I can't hold in the Moor," retorts McGregor, "fine the other drivers for holding their horses back." Then the "go" was given but the start was a wretched one. The Moor was half a length ahead of Vaughan and Echo at least a length behind the latter. At the quarter pole the Moor was in the lead by half a length and Echo over a length ahead of Vaughan. The latter made a break at the outside. There were half a dozen false starts, the black each time being too far in the lead. "Hold in the Moor," cries out the judge, "or you'll be first again." "I can't hold in the Moor," retorts McGregor, "fine the other drivers for holding their horses back." Then the "go" was given but the start was a wretched one. The Moor was half a length ahead of Vaughan and Echo at least a length behind the latter. At the quarter pole the Moor was in the lead by half a length and Echo over a length ahead of Vaughan. The latter made a break at the outside. There were half a dozen false starts, the black each time being too far in the lead. "Hold in the Moor," cries out the judge, "or you'll be first again." "I can't hold in the Moor," retorts McGregor, "fine the other drivers for holding their horses back." Then the "go" was given but the start was a wretched one. The Moor was half a length ahead of Vaughan and Echo at least a length behind the latter. At the quarter pole the Moor was in the lead by half a length and Echo over a length ahead of Vaughan. The latter made a break at the outside. There were half a dozen false starts, the black each time being too far in the lead. "Hold in the Moor," cries out the judge, "or you'll be first again." "I can't hold in the Moor," retorts McGregor, "fine the other drivers for holding their horses back." Then the "go" was given but the start was a wretched one. The Moor was half a length ahead of Vaughan and Echo at least a length behind the latter. At the quarter pole the Moor was in the lead by half a length and Echo over a length ahead of Vaughan. The latter made a break at the outside. There were half a dozen false starts, the black each time being too far in the lead. "Hold in the Moor," cries out the judge, "or you'll be first again." "I can't hold in the Moor," retorts McGregor, "fine the other drivers for holding their horses back." Then the "go" was given but the start was a wretched one. The Moor was half a length ahead of Vaughan and Echo at least a length behind the latter. At the quarter pole the Moor was in the lead by half a length and Echo over a length ahead of Vaughan. The latter made a break at the outside. There were half a dozen false starts, the black each time being too far in the lead. "Hold in the Moor," cries out the judge, "or you'll be first again." "I can't hold in the Moor," retorts McGregor, "fine the other drivers for holding their horses back." Then the "go" was given but the start was a wretched one. The Moor was half a length ahead of Vaughan and Echo at least a length behind the latter. At the quarter pole the Moor was in the lead by half a length and Echo over a length ahead of Vaughan. The latter made a break at the outside. There were half a dozen false starts, the black each time being too far in the lead. "Hold in the Moor," cries out the judge, "or you'll be first again." "I can't hold in the Moor," retorts McGregor, "fine the other drivers for holding their horses back." Then the "go" was given but the start was a wretched one. The Moor was half a length ahead of Vaughan and Echo at least a length behind the latter. At the quarter pole the Moor was in the lead by half a length and Echo over a length ahead of Vaughan. The latter made a break at the outside. There were half a dozen false starts, the black each time being too far in the lead. "Hold in the Moor," cries out the judge, "or you'll be first again." "I can't hold in the Moor," retorts McGregor, "fine the other drivers for holding their horses back." Then the "go" was given but the start was a wretched one. The Moor was half a length ahead of Vaughan and Echo at least a length behind the latter. At the quarter pole the Moor was in the lead by half a length and Echo over a length ahead of Vaughan. The latter made a break at the outside. There were half a dozen false starts, the black each time being too far in the lead. "Hold in the Moor," cries out the judge, "or you'll be first again." "I can't hold in the Moor," retorts McGregor, "fine the other drivers for holding their horses back." Then the "go" was given but the start was a wretched one. The Moor was half a length ahead of Vaughan and Echo at least a length behind the latter. At the quarter pole the Moor was in the lead by half a length and Echo over a length ahead of Vaughan. The latter made a break at the outside. There were half a dozen false starts, the black each time being too far in the lead. "Hold in the Moor," cries out the judge, "or you'll be first again." "I can't hold in the Moor," retorts McGregor, "fine the other drivers for holding their horses back." Then the "go" was given but the start was a wretched one. The Moor was half a length ahead of Vaughan and Echo at least a length behind the latter. At the quarter pole the Moor was in the lead by half a length and Echo over a length ahead of Vaughan. The latter made a break at the outside. There were half a dozen false starts, the black each time being too far in the lead. "Hold in the Moor," cries out the judge, "or you'll be first again." "I can't hold in the Moor," retorts McGregor, "fine the other drivers for holding their horses back." Then the "go" was given but the start was a wretched one. The Moor was half a length ahead of Vaughan and Echo at least a length behind the latter. At the quarter pole the Moor was in the lead by half a length and Echo over a length ahead of Vaughan. The latter made a break at the outside. There were half a dozen false starts, the black each time being too far in the lead. "Hold in the Moor," cries out the judge, "or you'll be first again." "I can't hold in the Moor," retorts McGregor, "fine the other drivers for holding their horses back." Then the "go" was given but the start was a wretched one. The Moor was half a length ahead of Vaughan and Echo at least a length behind the latter. At the quarter pole the Moor was in the lead by half a length and Echo over a length ahead of Vaughan. The latter made a break at the outside. There were half a dozen false starts, the black each time being too far in the lead. "Hold in the Moor," cries out the judge, "or you'll be first again." "I can't hold in the Moor," retorts McGregor, "fine the other drivers for holding their horses back." Then the "go" was given but the start was a wretched one. The Moor was half a length ahead of Vaughan and Echo at least a length behind the latter. At the quarter pole the Moor was in the lead by half a length and Echo over a length ahead of Vaughan. The latter made a break at the outside. There were half a dozen false starts, the black each time being too far in the lead. "Hold in the Moor," cries out the judge, "or you'll be first again." "I can't hold in the Moor," retorts McGregor, "fine the other drivers for holding their horses back." Then the "go" was given but the start was a wretched one. The Moor was half a length ahead of Vaughan and Echo at least a length behind the latter. At the quarter pole the Moor was in the lead by half a length and Echo over a length ahead of Vaughan. The latter made a break at the outside. There were half a dozen false starts, the black each time being too far in the lead. "Hold in the Moor," cries out the judge, "or you'll be first again." "I can't hold in the Moor," retorts McGregor, "fine the other drivers for holding their horses back." Then the "go" was given but the start was a wretched one. The Moor was half a length ahead of Vaughan and Echo at least a length behind the latter. At the quarter pole the Moor was in the lead by half a length and Echo over a length ahead of Vaughan. The latter made a break at the outside. There were half a dozen false starts, the black each time being too far in the lead. "Hold in the Moor," cries out the judge, "or you'll be first again." "I can't hold in the Moor," retorts McGregor, "fine the other drivers for holding their horses back." Then the "go" was given but the start was a wretched one. The Moor was half a length ahead of Vaughan and Echo at least a length behind the latter. At the quarter pole the Moor was in the lead by half a length and Echo over a length ahead of Vaughan. The latter made a break at the outside. There were half a dozen false starts, the black each time being too far in the lead. "Hold in the Moor," cries out the judge, "or you'll be first again." "I can't hold in the Moor," retorts McGregor, "fine the other drivers for holding their horses back." Then the "go" was given but the start was a wretched one. The Moor was half a length ahead of Vaughan and Echo at least a length behind the latter. At the quarter pole the Moor was in the lead by half a length and Echo over a length ahead of Vaughan. The latter made a break at the outside. There were half a dozen false starts, the black each time being too far in the lead. "Hold in the Moor," cries out the judge, "or you'll be first again." "I can't hold in the Moor," retorts McGregor, "fine the other drivers for holding their horses back." Then the "go" was given but the start was a wretched one. The Moor was half a length ahead of Vaughan and Echo at least a length behind the latter. At the quarter pole the Moor was in the lead by half a length and Echo over a length ahead of Vaughan. The latter made a break at the outside. There were half a dozen false starts, the black each time being too far in the lead. "Hold in the Moor," cries out the judge, "or you'll be first again." "I can't hold in the Moor," retorts McGregor, "fine the other drivers for holding their horses back." Then the "go" was given but the start was a wretched one. The Moor was half a length ahead of Vaughan and Echo at least a length behind the latter. At the quarter pole the Moor was in the lead by half a length and Echo over a length ahead of Vaughan. The latter made a break at the outside. There were half a dozen false starts, the black each time being too far in the lead. "Hold in the Moor," cries out the judge, "or you'll be first again." "I can't hold in the Moor," retorts McGregor, "fine the other drivers for holding their horses back." Then the "go" was given but the start was a wretched one. The Moor was half a length ahead of Vaughan and Echo at least a length behind the latter. At the quarter pole the Moor was in the lead by half a length and Echo over a length ahead of Vaughan. The latter made a break at the outside. There were half a dozen false starts, the black each time being too far in the lead. "Hold in the Moor," cries out the judge, "or you'll be first again." "I can't hold in the Moor," retorts McGregor, "fine the other drivers for holding their horses back." Then the "go" was given but the start was a wretched one. The Moor was half a length ahead of Vaughan and Echo at least a length behind the latter. At the quarter pole the Moor was in the lead by half a length and Echo over a length ahead of Vaughan. The latter made a break at the outside. There were half a dozen false starts, the black each time being too far in the lead. "Hold in the Moor," cries out the judge, "or you'll be first again." "I can't hold in the Moor," retorts McGregor, "fine the other drivers for holding their horses back." Then the "go" was given but the start was a wretched one. The Moor was half a length ahead of Vaughan and Echo at least a length behind the latter. At the quarter pole the Moor was in the lead by half a length and Echo over a length ahead of Vaughan. The latter made a break at the outside. There were half a dozen false starts, the black each time being too far in the lead. "Hold in the Moor," cries out the judge, "or you'll be first again." "I can't hold in the Moor," retorts McGregor, "fine the other drivers for holding their horses back." Then the "go" was given but the start was a wretched one. The Moor was half a length ahead of Vaughan and Echo at least a length behind the latter. At the quarter pole the Moor was in the lead by half a length and Echo over a length ahead of Vaughan. The latter made a break at the outside. There were half a dozen false starts, the black each time being too far in the lead. "Hold in the Moor," cries out the judge, "or you'll be first again." "I can't hold in the Moor," retorts McGregor, "fine the other drivers for holding their horses back." Then the "go" was given but the start was a wretched one. The Moor was half a length ahead of Vaughan and Echo at least a length behind the latter. At the quarter pole the Moor was in the lead by half a length and Echo over a length ahead of Vaughan. The latter made a break at the outside. There were half a dozen false starts, the black each time being too far in the lead. "Hold in the Moor," cries out the judge, "or you'll be first again." "I can't hold in the Moor," retorts McGregor, "fine the other drivers for holding their horses back." Then the "go" was given but the start was a wretched one. The Moor was half a length ahead of Vaughan and Echo at least a length behind the latter. At the quarter pole the Moor was in the lead by half a length and Echo over a length ahead of Vaughan. The latter made a break at the outside. There were half a dozen false starts, the black each time being too far in the lead. "Hold in the Moor," cries out the judge, "or you'll be first again." "I can't hold in the Moor," retorts McGregor, "fine the other drivers for holding their horses back." Then the "go" was given but the start was a wretched one. The Moor was half a length ahead of Vaughan and Echo at least a length behind the latter. At the quarter pole the Moor was in the lead by half a length and Echo over a length ahead of Vaughan. The latter made a break at the outside. There were half a dozen false starts, the black each time being too far in the lead. "Hold in the Moor," cries out the judge, "or you'll be first again." "I can't hold in the Moor," retorts McGregor, "fine the other drivers for holding their horses back." Then the "go" was given but the start was a wretched one. The Moor was half a length ahead of Vaughan and Echo at least a length behind the latter. At the quarter pole the Moor was in the lead by half a length and Echo over a length ahead of Vaughan. The latter made a break at the outside. There were half a dozen false starts, the black each time being too far in the lead. "Hold in the Moor," cries out the judge, "or you'll be first again." "I can't hold in the Moor," retorts McGregor, "fine the other drivers for holding their horses back." Then the "go" was given but the start was a wretched one. The Moor was half a length ahead of Vaughan and Echo at least a length behind the latter. At the quarter pole the Moor was in the lead by half a length and Echo over a length ahead of Vaughan. The latter made a break at the outside. There were half a dozen false starts, the black each time being too far in the lead. "Hold in the Moor," cries out the judge, "or you'll be first again." "I can't hold in the Moor," retorts McGregor, "fine the other drivers for holding their horses back." Then the "go" was given but the start was a wretched one. The Moor was half a length ahead of Vaughan and Echo at least a length behind the latter. At the quarter pole the Moor was in the lead by half a length and Echo over a length ahead of Vaughan. The latter made a break at the outside. There were half a dozen false starts, the black each time being too far in the lead. "Hold in the Moor," cries out the judge, "or you'll be first again." "I can't hold in the Moor," retorts McGregor, "fine the other drivers for holding their horses back." Then the "go" was given but the start was a wretched one. The Moor was half a length ahead of Vaughan and Echo at least a length behind the latter. At the quarter pole the Moor was in the lead by half a length and Echo over a length ahead of Vaughan. The latter made a break at the outside. There were half a dozen false starts, the black each time being too far in the lead. "Hold in the Moor," cries out the judge, "or you'll be first again." "I can't hold in the Moor," retorts McGregor, "fine the other drivers for holding their horses back." Then the "go" was given but the start was a wretched one. The Moor was half a length ahead of Vaughan and Echo at least a length behind the latter. At the quarter pole the Moor was in the lead by half a length and Echo over a length ahead of Vaughan. The latter made a break at the outside. There were half a dozen false starts, the black each time being too far in the lead. "Hold in the Moor," cries out the judge, "or you'll be first again." "I can't hold in the Moor," retorts McGregor, "fine the other drivers for holding their horses back." Then the "go" was given but the start was a wretched one. The Moor was half a length ahead of Vaughan and Echo at least a length behind the latter. At the quarter pole the Moor was in the lead by half a length and Echo over a length ahead of Vaughan. The latter made a break at the outside. There were half a dozen false starts, the black each time being too far in the lead. "Hold in the Moor," cries out the judge, "or you'll be first again." "I can't hold in the Moor," retorts McGregor, "fine the other drivers for holding their horses back." Then the "go" was given but the start was a wretched one. The Moor was half a length ahead of Vaughan and Echo at least a length behind the latter. At the quarter pole the Moor was in the lead by half a length and Echo over a length ahead of Vaughan. The latter made a break at the outside. There were half a dozen false starts, the black each time being too far in the lead. "Hold in the Moor," cries out the judge, "or you'll be first again." "I can't hold in the Moor," retorts McGregor, "fine the other drivers for holding their horses back." Then the "go" was given but the start was a wretched one. The Moor was half a length ahead of Vaughan and Echo at least a length behind the latter. At the quarter pole the Moor was in the lead by half a length and Echo over a length ahead of Vaughan. The latter made a break at the outside. There were half a dozen false starts, the black each time being too far in the lead. "Hold in the Moor," cries out the judge, "or you'll be first again." "I can't hold in the Moor," retorts McGregor, "fine the other drivers for holding their horses back." Then the "go" was given but the start was a wretched one. The Moor was half a length ahead of Vaughan and Echo at least a length behind the latter. At the quarter pole the Moor was in the lead by half a length and Echo over a length ahead of Vaughan. The latter made a break at the outside. There were half a dozen false starts, the black each time being too far in the lead. "Hold in the Moor," cries out the judge, "or you'll be first again." "I can't hold in the Moor," retorts McGregor, "fine the other drivers for holding their horses back." Then the "go" was given but the start was a wretched one. The Moor was half a length ahead of Vaughan and Echo at least a length behind the latter. At the quarter pole the Moor was in the lead by half a length

Los Angeles Herald.

CITY AND COUNTY OFFICIAL PAPER.

FRIDAY, OCT. 30, 1874.

Latest Telegrams.

EASTERN.

Cremation of Lady Dilke. New York, October 28th.—The London Times' Berlin correspondent writes that the body of Lady Dilke was burned on the 10th instant at Dresden, strangers being permitted to be present. The coffin was placed in the chamber of the furnace, and six minutes later it burst; five minutes more and the flesh began to melt away; ten minutes more and the skeleton was laid bare; another ten minutes and the bones began to crumble, and in seventy-five minutes after the introduction of the coffin what remained of Lady Dilke and the coffin was six pounds of dust, which was placed in an urn.

The Louisiana Lottery—Strange Scenes in a Free Country.—The Military Hunting Down Leading Citizens.

MONROE (La.), October 27th.—N. J. Scott, Parish Judge, and E. W. Richardson, Mayor of Homer, James H. Hurl, of Mayfield, and P. L. Phillips, of Lincoln, were brought here this morning under a cavalry escort, and Richardson was handcuffed. The prisoners were imprisoned under a close guard in the Sheriff's office. Their counsel were admitted on a written order.

The Claiborne prisoners are charged with an attempt to break up a peaceable assemblage on the 11th of July, in Homer, when Mayor Richardson, Ramsey and Scott were active in preventing a riot. The Lincoln prisoners are charged with an attempt to compel Jewett, by whom the warrants were issued, to resign as Commissioner.

Rooms are being prepared in the jail here for the prisoners, as they are now confined in a room with nineteen prisoners, mostly negroes and felons, already confined in the three small rooms.

Claiborne and Lincoln are Democratic parishes. Great indignation is felt here at the arrest and harsh treatment of the prisoners. It is believed generally the arrests were made for political effect.

HAZARD, October 27th.—Ellihu Burritt is dangerously ill at his house, in New Britain, from hemorrhage of the lungs.

Louisiana News.

NEW ORLEANS, October 28th.—The fraudulent returns include the names of negroes, many of whom are alleged to have from five to ten registration certificates each. Republicans claim that there are many false registrations, and that the negroes are being used to influence the election. The State prison will soon be filled with political rascals who are now at large.

Gov. Kollege having decided that the ballot boxes for the city shall contain a compartment for the ballots of voters naturalized by the Second District Court, and the said naturalized citizens having to-night decided to deposit their ballots in the same box with other American citizens, a conflict on election day seems probable.

FOREIGN.

France and Russia—Disagreement Re-visited.

BRUSSELS, October 27th.—Le Nord discredits the reported agreement of France to support Russia in her policy in the East and positively contradicts the recent reports that Germany was about to send a note to France informing the Spanish complaints as to the Carlists. Le Nord strengthens the contradiction with a statement that the German Minister disapproves the tone of Spain's last communication to France.

End of a Session.

BERLIN, October 28th.—Von Arnim has been released.

SAN FRANCISCO.

The Australian Steamer—The New Mint Building—The Weather.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 29th.—The steamer Cytherea, from Australia, arrived this morning. The new mint will be turned over to General LaGrange on the 5th of November. The weather is clear and beautiful to-day.

The Campaign in Nevada.

VIRGINIA, October 27th.—There is little new in the political situation this morning. A change is announced in the Independent Legislative ticket this morning by the substitution of the name of J. G. Caldwell of Gold Hill for the State Senator in place of A. K. Porter. The anti-Sharonites are circulating an address signed by J. McGill of the San Francisco Bricklayers' Association, to the workingmen of Nevada, but it does not find much favor from the fact that even many workingmen consider it as an unnecessary interference of outside parties with the affairs of Nevada. The people of the State are themselves capable of judging of the issues of the contest.

The question of subsidy is attaining more prominence and both sides are charging the opposition candidates with having a subsidy record. The Enterprise reprints the articles of incorporation of the Humboldt and Colorado Railroad, of which A. C. Ellis, Democratic nominee for Congress, was one of the incorporators and for granting a franchise to which a bill was introduced in the last Legislature. One of the clauses of this bill authorizes the county of Eureka to issue $150,000 bonds for the railroad in return for the par value of stock to a similar amount.

Charley De Long's name has dropped right out of the contest. I have not heard the name of the sister mentioned since I have been in Virginia. The Republicans are trying to make a Suro and anti-Suro fight with but little reference to the qualifications of candidates.

Not Guilty—Mangled to Death.

Reno, Nev., October 28th.—The jury of the downy murder case, which has occupied the attention of the District Court for the past few days, rendered a verdict of acquittal this morning at 9 o'clock. N. Greene Curtis was the attorney for defense. Oswald, who was so horribly mangled by a freight train on the Virginia and Truckee Railroad the 28th inst., died yesterday.

The Bakersfield Courier says that the depot which formerly stood at Tipton has been removed to that place. Passengers and freight were delivered at the new station Monday.

Four new points of wheat shipment will have been opened the present season—Antioch, Collinsville, Monterey and San Diego—all of which are due to the efforts of the Grangers.

The loading of the Grangers' ship, Chas. Murdoch, at South Vallejo, has been discontinued.

The following is a list of the letters left for postage in the Los Angeles Postoffice, October 29, 1874:

Blancha Sanchez, Ventura, Cal. J. C. Bland, San Juan Capistrano. J. C. Bland, San Juan Capistrano. J. C. Bland, San Juan Capistrano.

One photograph for A. H. Knowles, Minneapolis, Minn.

One newspaper, Mrs. Lucy A. Knappsen, Eaton Rapids, Mich.

H. K. W. BENT, P. M.

COURT REPORTS.

District Court—SEPUVEDA, J. THURSDAY, October 29.

County Court—O'NEIL, J. THURSDAY, October 29.

People vs. Moser.—Demurrer filed, argued and sustained. The District Attorney accepting the demurrer, the case was dismissed.

People vs. Miller.—Plead not guilty and set for Thursday, the 6th, at 9 A. M.

People vs. Miller.—Plead not guilty and set for Thursday, the 6th, at 9 A. M.

People vs. Miller.—Plead not guilty and set for Thursday, the 6th, at 9 A. M.

People vs. Miller.—Plead not guilty and set for Thursday, the 6th, at 9 A. M.

People vs. Miller.—Plead not guilty and set for Thursday, the 6th, at 9 A. M.

People vs. Miller.—Plead not guilty and set for Thursday, the 6th, at 9 A. M.

People vs. Miller.—Plead not guilty and set for Thursday, the 6th, at 9 A. M.

People vs. Miller.—Plead not guilty and set for Thursday, the 6th, at 9 A. M.

People vs. Miller.—Plead not guilty and set for Thursday, the 6th, at 9 A. M.

People vs. Miller.—Plead not guilty and set for Thursday, the 6th, at 9 A. M.

People vs. Miller.—Plead not guilty and set for Thursday, the 6th, at 9 A. M.

People vs. Miller.—Plead not guilty and set for Thursday, the 6th, at 9 A. M.

People vs. Miller.—Plead not guilty and set for Thursday, the 6th, at 9 A. M.

People vs. Miller.—Plead not guilty and set for Thursday, the 6th, at 9 A. M.

People vs. Miller.—Plead not guilty and set for Thursday, the 6th, at 9 A. M.

People vs. Miller.—Plead not guilty and set for Thursday, the 6th, at 9 A. M.

People vs. Miller.—Plead not guilty and set for Thursday, the 6th, at 9 A. M.

People vs. Miller.—Plead not guilty and set for Thursday, the 6th, at 9 A. M.

People vs. Miller.—Plead not guilty and set for Thursday, the 6th, at 9 A. M.

People vs. Miller.—Plead not guilty and set for Thursday, the 6th, at 9 A. M.

People vs. Miller.—Plead not guilty and set for Thursday, the 6th, at 9 A. M.

People vs. Miller.—Plead not guilty and set for Thursday, the 6th, at 9 A. M.

People vs. Miller.—Plead not guilty and set for Thursday, the 6th, at 9 A. M.

People vs. Miller.—Plead not guilty and set for Thursday, the 6th, at 9 A. M.

People vs. Miller.—Plead not guilty and set for Thursday, the 6th, at 9 A. M.

People vs. Miller.—Plead not guilty and set for Thursday, the 6th, at 9 A. M.

People vs. Miller.—Plead not guilty and set for Thursday, the 6th, at 9 A. M.

People vs. Miller.—Plead not guilty and set for Thursday, the 6th, at 9 A. M.

People vs. Miller.—Plead not guilty and set for Thursday, the 6th, at 9 A. M.

People vs. Miller.—Plead not guilty and set for Thursday, the 6th, at 9 A. M.

People vs. Miller.—Plead not guilty and set for Thursday, the 6th, at 9 A. M.

People vs. Miller.—Plead not guilty and set for Thursday, the 6th, at 9 A. M.

People vs. Miller.—Plead not guilty and set for Thursday, the 6th, at 9 A. M.

People vs. Miller.—Plead not guilty and set for Thursday, the 6th, at 9 A. M.

People vs. Miller.—Plead not guilty and set for Thursday, the 6th, at 9 A. M.

People vs. Miller.—Plead not guilty and set for Thursday, the 6th, at 9 A. M.

People vs. Miller.—Plead not guilty and set for Thursday, the 6th, at 9 A. M.

People vs. Miller.—Plead not guilty and set for Thursday, the 6th, at 9 A. M.

People vs. Miller.—Plead not guilty and set for Thursday, the 6th, at 9 A. M.

People vs. Miller.—Plead not guilty and set for Thursday, the 6th, at 9 A. M.

People vs. Miller.—Plead not guilty and set for Thursday, the 6th, at 9 A. M.

People vs. Miller.—Plead not guilty and set for Thursday, the 6th, at 9 A. M.

People vs. Miller.—Plead not guilty and set for Thursday, the 6th, at 9 A. M.

People vs. Miller.—Plead not guilty and set for Thursday, the 6th, at 9 A. M.

MISCELLANEOUS. UNION STABLES, MAIN STREET, (Near the Pio House.) ASKIN & HEWITT, PROPRIETORS.

THIS FIRST CLASS establishment is complete in all its details, and is ready to accommodate the public in the best manner. The capacity of this stable is greater than that of any other in Southern California.

Horses and Buggies and Carriages, with careful drivers, to let by the day or week. Horses boarded and groomed by the day, week or month.

Respectfully solicit a share of public patronage, pledging in return attention to their customers and a determination to satisfy their customers.

LOUIS EMERY PAGE, F. E. EPHRAIM GRAVEL.

PAGE & GRAVEL, Carriages and Wagons.

Or all kinds, made of the best material. They also keep on hand a large stock of

Carriages, Buggies, Light Spring and Heavy Wagons, of their own make, which they warrant in every respect.

They have determined to sell their work at prices as low as the inferior and worthless work that is frequently being palmed off upon the community in Los Angeles and elsewhere.

Call and see the best assortment of Carriages and Buggies ever offered in Los Angeles. All Carriages and Buggies manufactured by us, are fitted with Page's celebrated Patent Adjustable Spring Lazyback, so well adapted to comfort.

WOOLEN MILL STORE!

PFEIFFENBERGER & SHAUER, Los Angeles Street, near Commercial.

HAVE JUST RECEIVED ANOTHER invoice of imported goods from the East, and have one of the most complete stocks to be found in the city, comprising

CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, FLANNELS, BLANKETS, &c., &c., &c., &c.

Of Foreign and Domestic manufacture.

A Tailoring Establishment is connected with the store, where customers can have their goods made up in the latest style and at the most reasonable prices.

Call and examine the stock for yourself. PFEIFFENBERGER & SHAUER.

FURNITURE FOR THE MILLION!

H. NEWBAUER, SPRING STREET.

Next door to the Herald Office, has constantly on hand an extensive stock of

FURNITURE, BEDDING AND WINDOW SHADES,

And everything in his line, which will be sold cheaper than the cheapest.

myself, GIVE HIM A CALL.

500 FAMILIES

HELPING THEMSELVES

Choice Family Groceries

GRANGE STORE, Main st., bet. Second and Third, LOS ANGELES.

Everything Sold at a Shade Above Cost.

Goods are delivered promptly to every part of the city. J. H. SEYMOUR, General Manager.

LOS ANGELES, July 18, 1874.

DUPUY & SHORT, GENERAL AUCTIONEERS, 143 MAIN STREET.

Next door to the Pioneer Stable.

SALE AT AUCTION On Saturdays.

DUPUY & SHORT

Will sell several Horses, Top & Open Buggies & Harness

Sale at 10 o'clock A. M.

sepi21r

VETERINARY SURGEON.

OSCAR C. BALDY, V. S., TREATS ALL diseases of the horse. Can be found at corner Fourth and Fort streets, Los Angeles, Cal.

BETHSDA MINERAL SPRING WATER.

AN INFALLIBLE REMEDY for Bright's Disease and disorders of the Liver.

To be obtained of DRUGGISTS and Grocers. For sale by J. L. WARD & CO., Gen. Agents. Testimonials of its efficacy can be found at our office.

LOOK TO YOUR FIRE!

GREAT REDUCTION

COAL!!

From $24 to $18, $20 and $22.

According to quality, per ton, at

I. B. FERGUSON'S (Agent) COAL YARD,

Corner of Spring and Court streets, LOS ANGELES, CAL.

THE MUTUAL AID ASSOCIATION.

L. M. HOLT, Secretary, No. 41 Temple Block, Los Angeles.

THIS ASSOCIATION IS DESIGNED TO pay the sum of

$2,000

to the family or nominee of deceased members. Its membership is now rapidly filling up. The expense to each member is light—the cost being about one-third that charged by the old-style Life Insurance Companies.

The Mutual Aid, A paper devoted to the interests of the Association will be sent to anyone applying to the Secretary. A good, live agent wanted in every neighborhood in Southern California, to canvass for members. For further particulars inquire of the Secretary, either in person or by letter, Los Angeles, July 18, 1874.

MISCELLANEOUS. THE DOLLAR STORE! Main Street, OPPOSITE THE COURT HOUSE, Los Angeles.

Dunsmoor Bros. PROPRIETORS.

THE FOLLOWING IS A PARTIAL LIST of articles we are now selling at extreme low prices:

100 Picture Albums, each.....$1.00

8 Goblets, each.....1.00

100 Jellies, each.....1.00

100 Pictures, each.....1.00

100 Pictures, each.....1.00

100 Pictures, each.....1.00

100 Pictures, each.....1.00

100 Pictures, each.....1.00

100 Pictures, each.....1.00

100 Pictures, each.....1.00

100 Pictures, each.....1.00

100 Pictures, each.....1.00

100 Pictures, each.....1.00

100 Pictures, each.....1.00

100 Pictures, each.....1.00

100 Pictures, each.....1.00

100 Pictures, each.....1.00

100 Pictures, each.....1.00

100 Pictures, each.....1.00

100 Pictures, each.....1.00

100 Pictures, each.....1.00

100 Pictures, each.....1.00

100 Pictures, each.....1.00

100 Pictures, each.....1.00

100 Pictures, each.....1.00

100 Pictures, each.....1.00

100 Pictures, each.....1.00

100 Pictures, each.....1.00

100 Pictures, each.....1.00

100 Pictures, each.....1.00

100 Pictures, each.....1.00

100 Pictures, each.....1.00

100 Pictures, each.....1.00

100 Pictures, each.....1.00

100 Pictures, each.....1.00

100 Pictures, each.....1.00

100 Pictures, each.....1.00

100 Pictures, each.....1.00

100 Pictures, each.....1.00

100 Pictures, each.....1.00

100 Pictures, each.....1.00

100 Pictures, each.....1.00

100 Pictures, each.....1.00

100 Pictures, each.....1.00

100 Pictures, each.....1.00

100 Pictures, each.....1.00

100 Pictures, each.....1.00

100 Pictures, each.....1.00

100 Pictures, each.....1.00

100 Pictures, each.....1.00

100 Pictures, each.....1.00

100 Pictures, each.....1.00

100 Pictures, each.....1.00

100 Pictures, each.....1.00

100 Pictures, each.....1.00

100 Pictures, each.....1.00

100 Pictures, each.....1.00

100 Pictures, each.....1.00

100 Pictures, each.....1.00

MISCELLANEOUS. The Grangers' Favorite and Champion of the West.

WHEELER & WILSON

IMPROVED DRAW-FEED SEWING MACHINES

Is Noiseless, Sews Faster, Runs Lighter, Has Greater Mechanical Simplicity than any other Machine in the World.

—THE WINNER AT—

LONDON, 1862; PARIS, 1867; VIENNA, 1873.

DISTINGUISHED HONORS.

World's Exposition, Vienna, 1873.

The Emperor of Austria has conferred the Imperial Order of Francis Joseph on the Hon. Nathaniel Wheeler, President of the celebrated Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine Company of New York.

All machines guaranteed and sold on easy terms. Sewing Machines repaired and warranted to satisfaction.

All kinds of Sewing Machine Siles and the BEST SEWING MACHINES. COTTON in the market.

Prices lower than any other house.

Special attention given to orders sent to EDWARD DOAK, No. 1 Spring street, Los Angeles, Cal.

WILLCOX & GIBBS

IMPROVED

NOISELESS SIMPLE

Lightrunning and Durable

Family Sewing Machine.

All kinds of Machines Bought, Sold, Exchanged and Rented.

AGENT FOR

E. Butterick & Co.'s PATTERNS.

SUMMER STYLES NOW READY.

PINKING AND STAMPING TO ORDER.

Ladies' and Gentlemen's Underwear

Manufactured in a superior manner. Materials of the best quality furnished at the lowest rates.

All kinds of Family Sewing and Repairing.

Stitching by the Yard.

depi2-8 No. 60 Spring St., Los Angeles.

The Stearns Ranchos.

ALFRED ROBINSON, Trustee, 542 Market Street, San Francisco, Cal.

90,000 ACRES OF LAND